Libertas Academy's Rules of Conduct:

- Students are expected to cooperate with basic Christians standards of behavior and conversation.
- There should be no talking back or arguing with teachers of staff. Prompt and cheerful obedience is expected. Requests from teachers should have not to be repeated.
- No chewing gum, electrical devices personal (CD players, Mp3 players, iPods) guns, or knives are allowed on school grounds. Cell phones are required to be in given to teacher each day or in backpack during the school day.
- Students are expected to be aware of and avoid the off-limits areas of the grounds or buildings.
- Students are expected to treat all of the schools materials or facilities with respect and care. This includes all textbooks distributed to the students.
(Students will be charged for lost or damaged textbooks.)

As people created in the image of God, we have the privilege of conducting ourselves in a manner which brings honor to Him. This is done through reliance on Scriptures: Philippians 1:27 reminds us to "conduct ourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ." This atmosphere of positive, biblical encouragement provides excellent opportunities for the development of strong Christian character.

Students Applying for 4th – 8th Grade:

I have read the rules for honorable conduct for Libertas Academy, and while enrolled here, I agree to cooperate with the behavioral standards on and off campus as set by the school's administration.
